

Kris Tierny represents Frederick County on the Park Advisory Commission and serves as its chair.

Since 2001 he has been employed as the Assistant County Administrator for Frederick County. Previously he served as the county's

Director of Planning and Development. Kris was appointed to the Shenandoah Valley Battlefields National Historic District Commission as a representative of Frederick County at the time of its creation; he served for a year as chair of the board. Kris holds a master's degree in Urban and Regional planning from Virginia Polytechnic Institute, as well as an undergraduate degree in Geography from the State University of New York at Brockport. He is a member of the International City/County Managers Association, the Virginia Local Government Managers Association, the American Institute of Certified Planners and the American Planning Association. Kris is married with two daughters. His wife is a Special Education teacher with the Frederick County school system.

